(Luke 1:79)

by Phil Carver

Em7                      Am7                      Em7                      Am7
By the tender mercy of our God,

Em7                      Am7                      Em7                      Am7
the dawn from on high will break upon us,

Dmaj7                      Gmaj7 Dmaj7                      Gmaj7
to give light to those who sit in darkness

Dmaj7 Gmaj7                      Em7
and in the shadow                      of death,

Em7                      Am7                      Em7                      Am7
to guide our feet                      into the way of peace.

Em7                      Am7                      Em7                      Am7
Guide our feet                      into the way of peace.

Em7                      Am7                      Em7                      Am7
Guide our feet                      into the way of peace.
